was raised at the Magistracy this morning. Two shopkeepers from Wing On Street were charged by Detective-Sergeant Mc-Iver, before Mr H. E. Wodehouse, with acting as marine dealer without having the requisite licence. The accused were defended by Mr H. L. Denoys. The procescution was brought under Ordinance 9 of 1875, Section 3, and Mr Dennys contended that the literal wording of the Ordinance THE S. S. Empress of Japan arrived at could not be followed, but that regard must Shanghai at 11.30 p.m. on Friday, and be had to the Schedule, which showed that leaves sgain at 7.30 p.m. to-day for Van- the Ordinance was not intended to apply couver, was Nagazaki, Kobs and Yokohama. to every person who bought and sold anchors, cables, sails, etc. He maintained that THE s. s. His clients did not buy goods in that way. They had been carrying on this business over ten years without being disturbed by the police. The authorities might as well require Mossrs Lane, Crawford and Co. and every shipshandler in the Colony to take out licenses to carry on business and if a literal definition were taken of the Ordinance, there were only five licensed marine store deslers in Honge kong. In each case, Mr Wedehouse imposed a fine of $60. We understand both cases will be appealed either to the H. E. Wodehouse at the Magistracy this Supreme Court or to His Excellency the
